

Theresa Kearney

Profile

Theresa Kearney is a paralegal with the Litigation and Appellate Groups. As part of the Litigation Group, Ms. Kearney assists attorneys in all areas of litigation from the initial case investigation through trial including commercial and personal injury litigation and long-term care and medical malpractice defense. She assists the Appellate Law Group in the coordination, assembly and preparation of records and transcripts required for briefing and the preparation of various motions at the appellate level. Ms. Kearney has more than 40 years experience in law and has been with the firm for more than 20 years.

Education

University of Indianapolis (A.S., 1982)

Appearances / Publications

Ms. Kearney has appeared as a speaker on various aspects of the paralegal profession before the following groups and universities: Indiana State Bar Association, Corporate Counsel Section; Indiana Continuing Legal Education Forum; Vincennes University; St. Mary-of-the-Woods University

Appointments / Memberships

Indianapolis Bar Association; Defense Trial Counsel of Indiana; Indiana State Bar Association, Lawyers, Legal Assistants Conference Group (1986); National Association of Legal Assistants, Board of Directors (1984 - 1986); Indiana Legal Assistants, president (1982 - 1984), first vice president (1980 - 1982), editor, Lex Scripta 1986; Indiana Paralegal Association, treasurer (1979)

Ms. Kearney was instrumental in the formation of the Indiana Paralegal Association.

tkearney@boselaw.com
T: 317.684.5129 (direct)
F: 317.223.0129 (direct)

111 Monument Circle
Suite 2700
Indianapolis, IN 46204
317.684.5000 Phone
317.684.5173 Fax